LOCAL

PLACES TO SEE

SCHLITTERBAHN

400 N Liberty Ave, New Braunfels, TX 78130, Phone: 830-625-2351

Over 65 acres on the scenic banks of the Comal River. Actually, most water in this spectacular water park comes from the river. This family-owned resort and water park has been recognized for the last 15 years as being the best waterpark in the world, creating new attractions every year.

It has more than three miles of tubing adventures, seventeen water slides, seven children's playgrounds on the water, the first surfing machine in the world, and three water coasters that coast uphill. The resort has a range of accommodations and various restaurants, but you can bring your own goodies and have a picnic as long as you do not bring alcohol.

GRUENE HALL

1281 Gruene Rd, New Braunfels, TX 78130 Phone: 830-606-1281

Gruene Hall, built in 1878, is Texas' oldest continually operating and most famous dance hall. By design, not much has physically changed since the Hall was first built. The 6,000 square foot dance hall with a high pitched tin roof still has the original layout with side flaps for open air dancing, a bar in the front, a small lighted stage in the back and a huge outdoor garden.

SNAKE FARM AND ZOO

5640 Interstate 35 Frontage Rd, New Braunfels, TX 78132
Phone: 830-608-9270

What started in 1967 as the popular Snake Farm became a fully accredited zoo in 2012. It still has lots of snakes and gators, but it now also boasts more than 500 different animals, most of which are rescues. You can come and see primates such as cute capuchin monkeys, exotic birds, cats, longhorns, and much more. Visitors can watch animal feeding or even handle snakes at specific hours.

LANDA PARK

164 Landa Park Dr, New Braunfels, TX 78130 Phone: 830-221-4350

Established in 1898, Landa Park has been a popular urban oasis for locals and tourists ever since. Situated on 51 acres along the river, this large park has a range of facilities that offer entertainment and recreation for all generations.

LOCAL

WURSTFEST

120 LANDA STREET NEW BRAUNFELS, TX 78130 Phone: 830-625-9167

During the 10-day festival, you'll find a variety of entertainment, food and fun on the Wurstfest Grounds in Landa Park as well as many special events throughout New Braunfels and Comal County. The following guidelines will help you prepared for fun at the festival.

MCKENNA CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

801 W San Antonio St, New Braunfels, TX 78130, Phone: 830-606-9525

McKenna Children's Museum offers kids interactive, hands-on exhibits that focus on culture, technology, and space with a goal of encouraging and unleashing learning and imagination. The range of exhibits is enormous, and there is something for everyone. The activities are linked to scenarios of everyday life that kids can explore, such as the Lend a Hand Ranch, Grocery Store, Outside the Lines Art Studio, Tot Spot, Destination Space, and so much more.

NEW BRAUNFELS FARMER'S MARKET

186 S Castell Ave, New Braunfels, TX 78130

The New Braunfels Farmer's Market is more than just a place to find fresh produce. Every Saturday, vendors from all over the area gather and sell everything from fruits and vegetables to pizza, chocolate, baked goods, meats, and cheeses.

NATURAL BRIDGE CAVERNS

26495 Natural Bridge Caverns Road, Natural Bridge Caverns, TX 78266
Phone: 210-651-6101

Natural Bridge Caverns offers a variety of outdoor adventures and fun for the whole family. Guests can see the beautiful stalactites, stalagmites, and rock formations of the caverns 180 feet below ground. Alternatively, they can climb to the top of a 60-foot obstacle course and take the zip line back down with the Canopy Challenge.

LOCAL

THE NEW BRAUNFELS RAILROAD MUSEUM

302 West San Antonio Street, New Braunfels, TX 78130
Phone: 830-627-2447

Explore the history of the railroad in Texas at the The New Braunfels Railroad Museum. The members of the NBHRMS have restored the International & Great Northern, Missouri Pacific, and Union Pacific depot building into a museum that is open to the public free of charge.

FAUST STREET BRIDGE

498 E Faust St, New Braunfels, TX 78130

The Faust Street Bridge has been a New Braunfels landmark for over 100 years. This Whipple truss bridge was constructed over the Guadalupe River in Comal County in 1887. The bridge was one of the first toll-free passages across a waterway in Texas, as most bridges at the time were privately owned and operated.

THE STARS AND STRIPES DRIVE IN

1178 Kroesche Ln, New Braunfels, TX 78130
Phone: 830-620-7469 (SHOW) | 830-626-1956 Office

It's a blast from the past on the Texas prairie! The Stars and Stripes is one of the few remaining drive-in movie theatres in the United States. This family-owned and operated establishment is open Friday through Sunday year-round, rain or shine.

WHITewater AMPHITHEATER

11860 Fm 306, New Braunfels, TX 78132
Phone 830-964-3800

Set outdoors with the scenic Lake Canyon in full view, Whitewater Amphitheater plays host to some of the biggest bands in New Braunfels. It has repeatedly been touted as one of the best outdoor concert venues in the state by various credible sources and hosts thousands of music fans every year.
